

Contributors support Foundations needs

THE YEAR 2007 was momentous for the Thomas Jefferson Foundation. In July, the Foundation announced the public phase of the $55 million campaign for a strategic plan addressing priority needs, including the construction and endowment of the Thomas Jefferson Visitor Center and Smith Education Center. This new facility is designed to serve a variety of purposes, not the least of which is providing a broader understanding of Jefferson and his global legacy. By the close of 2007, Monticello received commitments totaling $44.7 million. Construction of the new center is on time and on budget, and projected to be completed before the end of the year.

Additional Foundation achievements during the year included completion of the Monticello Classroom; an online curricular resource on topics related to Jefferson and Monticello; the discovery of four new Jefferson-era domestic sites on the Monticello property; an archaeological study and initial restoration of Jefferson's wine cellar; and the cataloging of significant materials collected from excavations on Mulberry Row. The Jefferson Library, Monticello's Web site, and the Thomas Jefferson Parkway each attracted record numbers of visitors in 2007, a testimony to the services provided.

These and other Foundation accomplishments were only possible with generous private support. On these pages we gratefully acknowledge the individuals, foundations, corporations, and organizations whose gifts to Monticello during 2007 provided $1,843,495 in unrestricted support for its operating budget and $20,666,228 in total gift income.

With much respect for this tremendous stewardship of the Jefferson legacy, our ambitions remain high and our goal remains excellence.

The Monticello Fund

The Thomas Jefferson Foundation gratefully acknowledges the donors at all levels who made gifts to the Monticello Fund over the period Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, 2007.

PLANNED GIVING

The Portico Society

The Thomas Jefferson Foundation has formed the Portico Society to recognize and thank those donors who have remembered Monticello in their estate planning with a bequest or other deferred gift, such as a charitable remainder trust or charitable gift annuity, or designation of the Foundation as the beneficiary of a retirement plan or life insurance policy.

If you have already made a planned gift to benefit Monticello, we hope you will share those plans with us if you have not already done so. We may then include you in the Portico Society which will have its inaugural member event later this year. We are also happy to provide additional information about planned giving options. Please contact Melissa A. Young, Vice President for External Affairs, at P.O. Box 217, Charlottesville, VA 22902, (434) 984-9824, or myoung@monticello.org.
